

Chamber Music Amarillo's one-woman show looks at creation

Posted: October 25, 2013 - 6:29pm

caption

By - Chip Chandler

Chamber Music Amarillo will host a one-woman show inspired by Michelangelo's view of creation.

"In the Beginning," a play by Marizelda Eggertsson, will be staged at 8 p.m. Nov. 1 and Nov. 2 in the Fibonacci Space, 3306 S.W. Sixth Ave.

The play incorporates music, mime, dialogue, dance and performance art, CMA officials said.

Eggertsson, a Hereford native, moved to Milan to study classical music. She also studied mime, theater and dance at the European Academy of Physical Theatre & Contemporary Mime in Paris.

Music for the performance, which also will include saxophonist Carlos Casso of Amarillo, was composed by Armando Ghidoni.

"This play tries to shed light onto a woman's life of redemption, reconciliation, liberation and salvation through sights, sounds and the art of mind," according to program information.

Tickets are $20 in advance and $30 at the door.

For information, call 806-236-3545 or visit www.chambermusicamarillo.org.